

University Learning Outcome #5 – Service to Community

Graduates will understand and value the benefits of service to the community.

Criteria for Assessment:

1. Understand

- a. The graduate will be able to explain an organization's goals and importance to the community.
- b. The graduate will be able to analyze needs within the community.
- c. The graduate will be able to identify appropriate community resources and services.

2. Value

- a. The graduate will be able to recognize that he or she has the ability to make a difference.
- b. The graduate will be able to support activities that improve the welfare of the community.
- c. The graduate will be able to respond to the needs of the community.