We can special order it! – If we are out of stock or do not carry an item or brand you are looking for, ask us. Many vendors have educational discounts that may save you money.

Save Your Receipts! – Every trimester a student or alumnus comes to the Bookstore looking for copies of old receipts for insurance, financial aid, or tax purposes. Sadly, there is nothing we can do to help them. So, keep all of your receipts as they may save you a lot of money one day.
